Setting the Pace: Fall Preview

Soon, the pace of fall will be here, and with it comes a fresh season of opportunities for our Chamber members to connect, grow, and celebrate our community together. This is always an exciting time of year to re-energize and engage with one another.

We're especially looking forward to our upcoming Golf Scramble —always a fun way to strengthen business connections while enjoying a day outdoors. Whether you're a seasoned golfer or just looking to network in a relaxed setting, this event welcomes all skill levels. In addition, our Chamber will be participating in the High School's homecoming activities, a fabulous chance to show support for our future leaders and engage with families throughout our community.

Speaking of leadership, September also marks the beginning of Leadership Winchester, where a new class of local professionals will start their journey of learning, networking, and growing together. If you've been considering developing your leadership skills or expanding your community involvement, applications for next year's class will open this winter.

As we transition into this busy season, it's also a perfect time to refresh your awareness of the resources already at your fingertips. Your Chamber membership includes access to our member-to-member directory and referral network—a wonderful way to discover local partners and service providers right within our own Chamber family. From accounting services to catering, graphic design to legal advice, we have incredible talent here in Winchester and Clark County. When you need a service this fall, check our member directory first and keep those business relationships growing right here at home.

Whether you're looking to build stronger business relationships, get more involved in community life, or sharpen your leadership skills, this season is full of opportunities. We encourage you to join in, participate, and make the most of your Chamber membership as we head into these busy and rewarding months ahead.

- Cindy Banks, Executive Director
